The congregation is quite willing to afford an opening through their land to the Mt. Vernon railroad bridge and they tender to the corporation of Alexandria free, through their land, the right of way along Royal street extended, sixty-six feet wide, from Fraukiin street to the south corporation line.

The corporation court will hold a session next Wednesday, and the counsel for Jefferson Phillips, convicted of manslaughter for killing George S. Smith, will ask that Phillips shall be kept in the upper story of the jail by night as well as by day. It is alleged that his health is suffering in consequence of being compelled to sleep in a cell on the first floor.

The ticket office of the Baltimore and Ohio The ticket office of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Hyattsville was entered by thieves Sunday night. Their entrance was effected by cutting the upper sash of the window, raising the latch which fastens it, and shoving open the inside blinds. The money drawer was then opened and rifled of about $1.25. The thieves tried to break open the large safe in the office, but were frightened off by a noise before they could accomplish their object. The office was evidently entered by parties who were familiar with the place. Bailiff Barr is now on the track of the robbers.
